A PIZZERIA IN A SHOPPING CENTRE

Last weekend I went with a friend to a new pizzeria, Cupola, recently opened in the Westfield Centre. My friend was 4.1. _____ in a nearby hotel, so the restaurant was closer than any other place in the area. We sat near the back and I must say it didn't feel like we were dining in a shopping centre 4.2. _____. As soon as we forgot about the number of escalators we had to take to reach the restaurant, it started to feel like a place in Rome or Florence.

The pizza which 4.3. _____ there is delicious. I had one with ham and mushrooms and my friend went 4.4. _____ a vegetarian option. The salads that we ordered with our pizza were a bit disappointing, but the desserts were amazing. I'm sure I will return for a piece of their strawberry cake.

My guest and I got completely lost in our food and conversation. We remembered where we were when we finished our meal and walked into the empty shopping centre – everybody was gone as the shops 4.5. _____ just a few minutes earlier.
